

I use satellite radio exclusively in my car, although I have access to AM/FM. I am not interested in the games and jokes that the local DJ's seem to enjoy, nor of the "50 days of Christmas". Satellite radio gives us a choice and should be allowed to expand as their listening audience needs require. Thank you.